WILL OF RICHARD JONES

Will Book 7, page 181.

In the name of God Amen, the 7th day of March in the year of our Lord 175/7, I, Richard Jones of Isle of Wight County being in perfect memory Thanks be to God for yt same, and knowing that it is appointed for all men once to die, do make and ordain this my last will and testament.

Item: I give to my son Benjamin a hundred acres of land that I bought of John Meacom, I say to him, and his heirs lawfully begotten of his body forever and a gun.

Item: I give to my son Solomon sixty acres of land yt I bought of Major Richard Bakes I say to him and his heirs lawfully begotten of his body forever and my gun.

Item: I give to my son Jacob the plantation whereon I now live containing seventy acres to him and his heirs lawfully begotten of his body forever.

Item: I give to my son Richard all my blacksmiths tools and

As for the rest of my worldly estate wherewith it has pleased God to bless me I leave to be equally divided between my wife and all my children.

But if either of my two youngest sons Solomon or Jacob should die with heir then yt Survivor shall possess yt whole forever and if they both should die with heir that then Jesse my son shall have Solomons part and my son Richard Jacobs part forever and I appoint Mary my wife my whole and sole executrix to see this my last will and testament fulfilled.

In the name of God Amen. I, Richard Jones of Upper Parish of the County of Isle of Wight in Va. being sick and weak in body yet in perfect memory I do make this my last will and testament as followeth: First, I commit my soul to God Almighty trusting to be saved by the meritts of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ and my body to ye earth to be decently buried and as for my worldly goods I bestow as followeth:

Item: I give and bequeath to my daughter Ann Bell sixty acres of land joyning on the side of ye Orphans Branch. The land whereon she and her husband William Bell now live I say to her and her heirs lawfully begotten of her body forever.

Item: I do give and bequeath unto my two sons Samuell and Richard ye remainder of my land to be equally divided them and my son Richard shall have ye manner Plantation whereon I now live in his part of the said land.

Item: I do give and bequeath to my son Samuell a feather bed and boulster, a rug, and pair of blanketts and a cow and calfe, and a sow and piggs, and two year old Barrow, and halfe a dozen of good dishes and halfe a dozen of good plates and a tankard and one iron pott.

Item: I do give and bequeath to my son Richard a feather bed and boulster and a rugg, and pair of blanketts, and a cow and a calfe and a sow and piggs and a two year old barrow and a halfe a dozen of good dishes and halfe a dozen of good plates and a iron pott.

Item: I do give and bequeath to my daughter Elizabeth halfe a dozen good dishes and halfe dozen good plates.

Item: I do give and bequeath to my daughter Christian halfe a dozen good dishes and halfe dozen good plates.

Item: I do give and bequeath to my daughter Sarah halfe a dozen good dishes and halfe dozen good plates.

Item: I do give and bequeath to my daughter Mary halfe a dozen good dishes and halfe dozen good plates.

As my daughter Ann Bell she hath received a dozen good dishes already and my daughter Martha Davis hath received half a dozen good dishes and halfe a dozen good plates already.

Item: I do give and bequeath to my loving wife Elizabeth the use of my two negroes during the time of her widowhood and at ye day of her marriage to return ye young negro Joyce to my son Samuell and ye first child the negro Joyce doth bear and raise to be two years old shall return to my son Richard and ye other child of negro Joyce doth bring and raise to be two years old shall between my two sons Joseph and Benjamin. Furtharmore I leave with my well beloved wife Elizabeth the money to buy a good new feather bed and rug and pair of blanketts between them Joseph and Benjamin and halfe a dozen of good dishes and halfe a dozen of good plates apeace and cow and calfe and sow and piggs and also a two years old Barrow and a pott apeace.

Item: I do give and bequeath to my loving wife Elizabeth a bed a rug and pair of blanketts during her natural life. As for ye Jones.

Richard Jones, in a deposition dated in 1694, stated he was 28 years old. Isle of Wight Deed Bk. 1, p. 113.

March 9, 1693,

Richard Jones having commenced his suit against William Smith and Anne his wife, the relict of John Downs dead, deft, declares that the deft. detains from the Plt., a feather bed which doth properly belong to the Plt's wife, for which ye plt. prays judgment, with costs to which the deft. by Capt. William Archer his attorney appears and for answer do affirm that this account is not rightly brought before the court because ye word, "relict" entitles no woman to ye possessions of her husband's estate, nor can she lawfully sue or be sued unless qualified as an Executrix or Administratrix, neither of which qualifications mentioned in this account; to which ye Plt. by Mr. Charles Chapman his Attorney replies, that the account is well laid and it being the opinion of the court the same is well laid, the deft. do thereupon appeal to the second day of the next General Court, entering John Davis security for prosecution thereof and Arthur Jones offers himself as security, that the appellee shall answer this appeal as ye law directs. Deed Bk. 1, rev. p.

(This would seem to indicate that Richard Jones married a daughter of John Downs. So far, I have been unable to find a single reference to him in the Isle of Wight records. He was probably from Nansemond. This throws an interesting light on the conditions under which our forebears lived, that a feather bed should be important enough to go to Court about. These beds were the luxuries of their time and invariably the favorite child was left the "best feather bed", B. A. C.)

Richard Jones evidently had a brother and sister for in 1694, the ages of Arthur Jones, Richard Jones and Sarah Jones' slaves were adjudged at the same court. Deed Bk. 1, p. 35, rev.

Arthur Jones Jr. in 1714 sells land adjoining Richard Jones and Francis Wrenn. Deed Bk. 2, p. 271.

Richard Jones was a witness on the will of Susanna Jones, the wife of Arthur Jones dated in 1691. W. & D. Bk. 2, p. 565.

Documentary proof is lacking, but the dates and names fit, so rest of my worldly goods I leave ye use thereof to my loving wife during her widowhood and therefore I appoint her my full and whole executrix to pay my debts and to receive what is owing to me my debts being paid she shall have the use of what I leave within doors and without during the time of her widowhood and then what is left shall be equally divided between Martha, Elizabeth, Sarah, Christian and Mary. And I desire you my trusty friends William Bell and Thomas Harris to see this my last will and testament fulfilled so I rest as witness my hand and seal.

At a court held for Isle of Wight County the 22nd day of July 1721 the last will and testament of Richard Jones was presented in court by Elizabeth Jones his widow and executrix who made oath thereto and being proved by the oath of William Gainer and Arthur Davis two of the witnesses is admitted to record that it seems reasonable to suppose Richard who died in 1721, to be the son of the earlier Richard. Not a single transaction can be found in the records to show that he ever bought any land, but he owned 250 A., and it adjoined Francis Wrenn, the man with whom the earlier Richard had been identified. Since the name Arthur appears in the line it is also possible that the first Richard was the son of an earlier Arthur who was named as a headright in 1664 by William Miles and William Cooke Sr., with a Margaret Jones, who could have been his wife, two Arthur Jones are listed in this patent. A descendant of William Cooke, Thomas Cooke married Mary the daughter of Arthur Smith (Richard's brother) in 1702/3. Thomas Harris, who was an Executor of the will of Richard Jones 1721, witnessed this deed. Deed Bk. 1, p. 383. This showing that the these people closely associated over a long span of years, making the deductions seem reasonable in spite of the lack of records to support them. No will or administration has been found of either the first Arthur Jones, Richard the first or his brother Arthur although, Susanna Jones the wife of Arthur left a will, dated in 1691, but not probated until 1713. Arthur Jones Jr. left a will in Surry County.

Richard Jones the first witnessed the will of Robert Pitt in 1672. Isle of Wight Will and Deed Bk 2, p. 128.

1. Jones states in his will that among others he had Richard Jones in 1683. W. & D. Bk. 2, p. 250.

William Jones.

Isle of Wight Will Book 4, p. 495

In the name of God, Amen-I, William Jones of Isle of Wight, being in good health and memory, thanks be therefore given to God knowing that it is appointed for all men to die, I do make, constitute and appoint this my last will and testament, revoking all other wills, heretofore made by me. Imprimis: My soul I resign to God that gave it, hoping for pardon and remission of all my sins through the merits and mediation of Jesus Christ.

Item: My body I resign to the earth to be decently buried by my executors hereafter named.

Item: I give and bequeath to my son Joseph Jones the plantation, whereon he now lives and all the land by it, it being by estimate 265 acres more or less, and one case of pistols and holsters and one sword to him and his heirs forever.

Item: I give and bequeath to my son Jesse Jones the land and plantation bought of Joshua Sikes and my survey joining to it and my negro boy Jack to him and his heirs forever.

Item: I give and bequeath to my three daughters, Olive, Honour and Mary Jones the plantation I now live on and all the land belonging to it, each to have an equal right so long as she lives a single life on the said plantation and if either of them marries, then to turn off the plantation and have no right thereto until such time they are all married or married and deceased and then if all married or married and deceased as the case may be, then the living sister or sisters or their heirs to have an equal right and share alike to the plantation and land aforesaid. I also give and bequeath to my three daughters aforesaid, three featherbeds and furniture, six pewter dishes and 81 pounds cash and nine cows or heifers to be divided ~~between them~~ share and share alike and to their heirs forever.

Item: I give to my granddaughter Lucy Jones 5 pounds cash and to her heirs forever.
